OCTOBER 2021

President's Message

This October QGOA will experience a unique program! We will still meet in person, but our speaker will ZOOM in via teleconferencing instead of an airplane! I'm excited to see what fresh designs Rebecca Bryan brings via her trunk show!

In person, we will collect Linus quilts, pick up some last minute RMD packs, shop the donation table, shop/pick up items at the Guild Show Booth, buy donation quilt tickets, sign up for the Day Retreat, Show and Tell, and visit with friends! It was wonderful last month to see so many happy quilting faces! (FYI: Please observe proper etiquette during lectures. Thanks.)

I wanted to give a shout out to Rhonda Weddle and Heather Schneider for stepping in at the last minute to make AWAY RETREAT fabulous! I also wanted to give a kudos to our "temporary" video team! You implemented a very smooth transition with our new equipment.

oh, yea, BOO!

Happy Halloween Quilting!

REBECCA BRYAN

Modern Triangle Quilts

A LIVE ZOOM PRESENTATION

Rebecca Bryan is known for creating colorful and geometric quilts. As a fourth generation quilter, Rebecca grew up in a family of makers. Her mother taught her everything she knew about sewing and helped her make her first official quilt for her first apartment. Rebecca has been quilting passionately ever since. A quilt designer, blogger, and author, she currently lives in St. Louis, Missouri, with her husband, four children, and one dog. Her lecture and trunk show will feature how you can use ideas from graphic design in your quilts. You'll leave the trunk show with fresh ideas to apply to your own quilts! Be sure to check out her website and social media. She posts weekly tutorials on YouTube too!

October SafeHaven 2021

Thank you for the donations for September! I took a mixed bag of items this week. I read my newsletter from SafeHaven and they wrote that 71 children used the front of one of the shelters for their first day of school pictures. That has been on my mind so much. I am thankful for the shelters, but I just pray for those kids that they will be strong enough to see they have a future.

For October, I would like to collect 71 trick or treat bags. I know you probably have some Halloween fabric laying around that needs a home! Looking for a smallish size 8"x12". I am also asking for small bags of candy and trick or treat items. (EX. Pencils, pretzels, toys, bubbles etc.) There are lots of choices out there!

Thanking you in advance!
Cynthia Berend

BLOCK PARTY!!!

Remember!! There is still time to make a President's Block. If you haven't made one yet, or if you'd like to make a few more, that would be spectacular! We could always use more! Debra Hood picked out a cute pattern called "Tiny Houses". Please use Christmas material and you can find the pattern on the website. Thank you, Kayleen Farrington

Dear Ones. September was a very good month for donations to Project Linus. Many quilts/blankets were received for our ill children in Tarrant County. Project Linus is not yet able to meet in person to sew, but we have met to drive-thru and drop off your donations at the church. Haven't yet heard when we will feel comfortable to meet in person, hopefully not too long.

I'm pleased to recognize last months quilters: Jolene Mershon, Susan FitzGerald, Ella Rushing, Nancy Spell, Phyllis Borton, Elaine Grasher, Cindy Bergman, Debra Hood, Lana Ogden, Rana Dillon, Pat Hall, Elizabeth Carr, Sarah Muñoz, Eliza and Brooklyn Muzzi, Kayleen Farrington, Judy O'Polka, Gabriel Eckstrom, Barb Cain, Ann Taff, Patricia Eckstrom, and anonymous.

Please remember that the hospitals prefer certain sizes. Small child 44" X 44" and for larger kids 57" X 44". Or any larger sizes that you make.

Reminder: we have a little extra time for Snowball Express donations. Usually it is about the first week in October due to needing to send them to Florida, and sorting takes time. But Snowball has had to postpone their meeting to err on the side of caution to protect the kids who are members of Snowball. Please keep making those quilts, they love them all.

Many thanks for all you efforts.
Elizabeth Cooper

2021 Military Quilt Project

I have labels for your Military Quilts. It really helps me out if you could attach one to your quilt before you turn it in. I'll have them at the October meeting.

I will be collecting quilts at the November meeting for this year's donation. So, if you have one ready that's great.

If life got busy and you aren't going to be finished, what a great head start for next year!

If you are a finisher, I have 2 sets of blocks from 2019 when I did the block kits.

If you would like to work on one of these or need some fabric for a donation quilt give me a call.

Size Requirement 55 x 65 to 72 x 90, ideal size 55 x 65

If you have made a top and are unable to quilt it, we have a few wonderful longarm quilters that will help with a few.

Many hands make light work.

Cindy Bergman

Snowball Express supplies blankets of comfort for children of a specific group. Snowball is an organization created for children that have lost a parent to active duty in the US Military. Every year these kids are taken to a joyous few days of utter thrills and enjoyment. Most importantly, they are only one among many suffering the same situation. All these kids can identify with one another rather than being alone.

About two years ago actor Gary Sinise joined the support group for Snowball, so currently the kids are flown all expense paid to Florida to enjoy hotel stays and all the excitement that Florida has to offer. In previous years they came to DFW. All that excitement as a short break from their reality. It is a privilege for Project Linus to be included in this effort.

Snowball asks that the quilts/blankets that we provide NOT have an American flag (they receive a flag at the funeral). The participants are often big kids so a large blanket is preferred. These kids are fond of super heroes, military/armed forces themed blankets such as Navy, Army etc., Anime themes, Esport game themes and of course cartoon and Disney themes and always bright, cheery colors. Last year Friendship Stitchers made a multitude of string quilts specifically for Snowball that will be used this year, many thanks to Friendship and Nancy Spell for this generous contribution.

This event occurs every year at about this time (deadline- early October). So keep in mind that your effort is needed every year. Our blankets and the amusement these kids get to enjoy are a mere token of appreciation for their sacrifice.

Thank you for your interest.

	Name of Quilt	Quilter	Description
Charlotte Humphrey	Buttons		Hand stitched buttonhole flowers in 30''s fabrics. This is one of my oldest UFO's. It was supposed to have appliquéd borders, but after such a long time, I just wanted a finished quilt!
Randa Dillon	Any Which Wag		This for my grandson's 6th birthday
Sherry Livingston	Sound of Flowers	Sabina Thompson	All of the flowers are pieced and butterfly is pieced and appliquéd
Gayle Lacerda Joyce Clark	Military Quilt	Cindy Bergman	Military quilts Still need someone to bind Joyce's quilt!
Shelly Cassata	Moody Blooms Panel & Shams		Spotted this panel at Longarm Quilting Academy in Fort Worth. I agreed to quilt it for the shop owner. It helped me improve my longarm free motion skills tremendously. The panel included the big quilt, a miniature and six pillow shams. I quilted them all and put the shams together for the shop owner.
